Music legend David Byrne Confirms Florida Theatre Concert September 26 | 8pm

First Solo Tour Since 2009
Tickets on sale now

Music legend David Byrne recently kicked off his first solo tour since 2009 in support of American Utopia, his new studio album. Byrne and the rest of his 12-piece band perform a choreographed, "untethered" concert that includes a mix of Talking Heads favorites, material from American Utopia and more.

Recently, a pair of New York City concerts were added to the tail end of the tour and now a series of new dates surrounding those performances have been confirmed.

The Florida Theatre is one of the newly added dates. Fans of the former Talking Heads front man can catch his Florida Theatre concert on September 26. Tickets are on sale now, and can be purchased at the official web site for Florida Tickets - floridatheatre.com, or by calling the Florida Theatre Box Office at 904.355.ARTS(2787).

Tune-Yards will perform as support on all of the tour's September concerts, including the show at the Florida Theatre on September 26.

Byrne recently recruited students from the Detroit School Of Arts Vocal Jazz Ensemble to perform and make a video for the American Utopia single "Everybody's Coming To My House." The video features personal perspectives and interpretations from the students, which were filmed in part by their classmates. Click here to watch American Utopia: Detroit.

The Florida Theatre's 2017 season is sponsored by Community First Credit Union. For a complete list of upcoming season events, including Studio 54 Jax on May 19, visit floridatheatre.com.

Florida Theatre : From ballet and opera to contemporary pop, jazz, rock, country and blues the nonprofit Florida Theatre offers 200 cultural and entertainment events annually for every taste and age. More than just an entertainment center, The Florida Theatre is also home to graduations, awards ceremonies, lectures, business meetings and charity events that support the community's schools, churches, hospitals and civic groups. As an anchor to downtown development along the beautiful St. Johns River, The Florida Theatre draws 250,000 people to Jacksonville's center each year. The magnificently restored Florida Theatre is recognized as one of the finest concert venues in the Southeast. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Florida Theatre holds special memories for four generations. From the Vaudeville acts and silent films of its earliest days to today's blend of performances of all kinds, The Florida Theatre has served as Jacksonville's premier entertainment center since 1927.
