

Orleans at the WJCT Soundstage on November 11, 2020

Jacksonville, Fla. (June 1, 2020) – The Florida Theatre, in partnership with WJCT, is happy to announce Orleans live at the WJCT Soundstage on Wednesday, November 11, 2020.

In 2020, platinum hit-makers Orleans will celebrate 48 years of live performances. Praised by their peers for their songwriting skills, instrumental prowess and classic trademark harmonies, their iconic radio hits still resonate with audiences of all ages thanks to continued airplay on classic rock radio, television, film and streaming services.

Orleans co-founder Lance Hoppen and longtime mainstays Fly Amero and Lane Hoppen are joined by Nashville veterans Brady Spencer and Chip Martin on drums and guitar, respectively. Together they faithfully deliver the musical elements you have come to expect from this class act with power and integrity.

"Although they're widely known for their monster hit singles ("Still the One," "Dance with Me," "Love Takes Time") Orleans is also a terrific band, who deliver a terrific live performance," said Numa Saisselin, President of the Florida Theatre. "The opportunity to see them in an intimate setting like the WJCT Soundstage is an experience you shouldn't miss."

"The WJCT soundstage is truly a unique venue in which every person in the audience has a great seat and can enjoy performances up close," said David McGowan, President and CEO of WJCT. "We are proud to partner with the Florida Theatre and invite you to the amazing show that Orleans has lined up at the WJCT Soundstage."
