Jacksonville, Fla. – Florida Theatre and Remedy Workforce Specialists Establish Corporate Partnership
Jacksonville-based Remedy Workforce Specialists announced this afternoon that they have signed a corporate partnership with the Florida Theatre.

“We are very proud to continue to support the Jacksonville area by becoming a corporate partner of the Florida Theatre. The variety of arts and live music they bring to all of us here in North Florida is always exciting and an important part of the culture of downtown Jacksonville,” said Brian Rose, owner of Remedy Workforce Specialists in Jacksonville. “Our company and team have been serving the Jacksonville community for more than 25 years, helping to bring together organizations and qualified employees to fill job needs with great care and success.”

Numa Saisselin, President of Florida Theatre said, “We are pleased to welcome Brian and his team at Remedy Workforce Specialists as our newest corporate partner. We are honored to be able to continue to move forward together in the coming year to make Jacksonville and the Northeast Florida community a great place to live and work.”

The historic, nonprofit Florida Theatre is sponsored by Community First Credit Union. For a complete list of upcoming events or to buy tickets visit the Theatre’s official website www.floridatheatre.com

Remedy Workforce Specialists in Jacksonville is a nationwide professional staffing organization with over 50 years of recruiting and selection expertise to match job candidates with positions where they will succeed.

Florida Theatre: From ballet and opera to contemporary pop, jazz, rock, country and blues the nonprofit Florida Theatre offers 200 cultural and entertainment events annually for every taste and age. More than just an entertainment center, The Florida Theatre is also home to graduations, awards ceremonies, lectures, business meetings and charity events that support the community's schools, churches, hospitals and civic groups. As an anchor to downtown development along the beautiful St. Johns River, The Florida Theatre draws 250,000 people to Jacksonville's center each year. The magnificently restored Florida Theatre is recognized as one of the finest concert venues in the Southeast. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Florida Theatre holds special memories for four generations. From the Vaudeville acts and silent films of its earliest days to today's blend of performances of all kinds, The Florida Theatre has served as Jacksonville's premier entertainment center since 1927.
