Florida Theatre and Times-Union Media Continue Corporate Partnership, Commitment to Downtown Jacksonville

Jacksonville, Fla. - The Florida Theatre and Times-Union Media announced that they will continue their long-standing relationship as corporate partners.

"Florida Theatre has been pleased to work with Times-Union Media, and is honored to be able to continue to move forward together in the coming year to make Jacksonville and the Northeast Florida community a great place to live and work," said Florida theatre President Numa Saisselin.

"Times-Union Media is proud to continue to support and promote the historic Florida Theatre," said Times-Union Media Publisher Bill Offill. "This venue continues to bring to us an exciting variety of arts, live music and theater. It's a center of entertainment and culture that brings so many to downtown Jacksonville to enjoy and share."

Florida Theatre : From ballet and opera to contemporary pop, jazz, rock, country and blues the nonprofit Florida Theatre offers 200 cultural and entertainment events annually for every taste and age. More than just an entertainment center, The Florida Theatre is also home to graduations, awards ceremonies, lectures, business meetings and charity events that support the community's schools, churches, hospitals and civic groups. As an anchor to downtown development along the beautiful St. Johns River, The Florida Theatre draws 250,000 people to Jacksonville's center each year. The magnificently restored Florida Theatre is recognized as one of the finest concert venues in the Southeast. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Florida Theatre holds special memories for four generations. From the Vaudeville acts and silent films of its earliest days to today's blend of performances of all kinds, The Florida Theatre has served as Jacksonville's premier entertainment center since 1927.
